

Lei Yue Mun Park
Lei Yue Mun Public Riding School
Notes on Horse-riding Activities

(A) Basic Requirements

1. Eligibility: All riders should be paid day, evening or residential campers of Lei Yue Mun Park (the Park).
2. Age: Riders should be aged 6 or above.
(Riders aged 6 to 17 should be accompanied by parents or team leaders to take part in the activities.)
3. Weight Limit: (i) Pony riders should weigh below 105 pounds.
(ii) Horse riders should weigh below 150 pounds.
4. Dress Code: All riders should wear suitable sportswear for riding, including soft trousers, sleeved tops and shoes or boots with heels. Those who do not comply with the dress code will not be allowed to ride and all payments shall not be refunded.
5. Horse-riding Code: Riders shall observe the horse-riding code of Lei Yue Mun Public Riding School of the Hong Kong Jockey Club (the School) and follow the riding instructions of the School instructors (the instructors) who have the discretion to terminate any riding activity as they see fit.

Note: The Park and the School will not accept any application which fails to meet the basic requirements for the horse-riding activities.

(B) Date, Time and Mode of Activities

1. Date of Activities:

Wednesday and Friday	10:00 am – 11:00 am	(am Session)
Tuesday to Friday	3:00 pm – 3:30 pm	(pm Session, except Jun to Sept)
	3:30 pm – 4:00 pm	(pm Session)
Saturday	4:00 pm – 5:00 pm	(pm Session)
2. Time of Activities: Each horse-riding session lasts for 30 minutes. Riders should report to the Programme Office staff at the School in suitable horse-riding gear 15 minutes before the commencement of the activity.
3. Activity Mode: (i) Individual Riding: Each rider can ride a horse/pony under the instructors' instructions in each session. Change of rider is prohibited in the course of the activities.
(ii) Group Riding: A group of 2 to 3 riders can ride a horse/pony in turn under the instructors' instructions in each session. (There shall only be one mode of riding activity (individual or group riding) in each session. A session will be cancelled if less than 2 horses/ponies are required.)
4. Medium of Instruction: The activities will be conducted in Cantonese. English-speaking instructors will only be arranged by appointment.
5. Number of Horses/Ponies: For weekdays, a maximum of 3 horses/ponies will be provided in the morning session, while a maximum of 4 horses/ponies will be provided in the afternoon session. For Saturdays, a maximum of 3 horses/ponies will be provided in the afternoon session. The actual number of horses/ponies provided is subject to the actual provision of Lei Yue Mun Public Riding School. The Programme Office of the Park may rearrange the activity time for riders as it sees fit.

Note: There shall only be one mode of riding activity (individual or group riding) in each session. A session will be cancelled if less than 2 horses/ponies are required. In such case, riders are requested to return to the Programme Office for refunds.

(C) Activity Fee

Camp fees do not cover the cost of horse-riding activities. Participants are required to make extra payment as follows:

Tuesday to Friday (September to June)	Tuesday to Friday (July and August)	Saturday and Public Holiday
$31.50	$60	$60

(D) How to apply

1. Bookings for riding sessions at least 8 days before the check-in date, and will only be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis. Applications for horse-riding sessions at the School may only be made in advance by paid campers who should submit a completed “Application Form for Horse-riding Activity” (see Page 4 for the form) to the Programme Office of the Park by post or fax (Address: Lei Yue Mun Park, 75 Chai Wan Road, Hong Kong; Fax No.: 2568 8304). Late applications will not be considered (the postmark date will be deemed to be the submission date).
2. Each camper may only apply for one type of riding activity per session (please refer to the application form on Page 4 for details).
3. Successful applicants will be notified by the Park. Applicants who do not receive any notification 3 days before the activity day may assume their applications unsuccessful.

(E) Payment Method

1. Morning Session Successful applicants for the morning session should contact the Programme Office for payments at 9:00 a.m. on the activity day.
2. Afternoon Session Successful applicants for the afternoon session should contact the Programme Office for payments before 2:00 p.m. on the activity day.
3. Payment Method The horse-riding fee should be paid in cash. No cheque will be accepted. Please keep the official receipt until the end of the activity.

(Riders should report to the Programme Office staff at the School in suitable horse-riding gear 15 minutes before the activity. Latecomers or absentees are deemed to be giving up their places, which will be allocated to other applicants on a first-come-first-served basis, and no refund shall be made.)

Note: If riders fail to pay the fees at the scheduled time, the activities booked will be cancelled. There shall be no refund for riders who are late, absent or fail to comply with the rules of the School and are hence prohibited from taking part in the activity by the school on ground of safety.

(F) Other Points to Note

1. Inclement Weather Arrangement

The School may cancel any horse-riding activity if the weather is unstable or Very Hot Weather Warning is in force. In such case, riders are requested to return to the Programme Office of the Park for refunds.

2. Declaration

Riders shall declare that they do not suffer from any physical or mental illness or disability (including visual impairment, hearing impairment, physical disability, cerebral palsy or spasticity which requires the use of wheelchair(s), mental disability, autism and Down’s syndrome) which may affect their understanding of horse-riding instructions. Persons with mental or physical disabilities may contact the Hong Kong Riding for the Disabled Association (Tel: 2857 7711; Fax: 2857 7933; Website: www.rda.org.hk) for details of horse-riding activities for the mentally and physically disabled.

3. Release and Indemnity Declaration

All riders shall sign the “Release and Indemnity” Form (parents/guardians should sign the Form on behalf of riders aged below 18) issued by Lei Yue Mun Public Riding School of the Hong Kong Jockey Club (“the School”). Please refer to the Form for details.

Note: The School, its instructors and the Park staff reserve the right for all the arrangements and decisions on riding activities.

For enquiries, please contact the Programme Office staff of Lei Yue Mun Park at 2568 7380.
